

Brendan McCreary Mid-Air at The Roxy

Visual Music Signs Brendan McCreary

"The Worst Is Yet To Come..."

LOS ANGELES --(SPW)-- Visual Music has signed Brendan McCreary, whose song "The Worst Is Yet To Come" is destined to become an anthem for our crazy times. Creative Director Tom Seufert notes, "Brendan seems to be channeling Freddie Mercury with his band, Young Beautiful in a Hurry and the song's chorus is perfect commentary for what's going on in the world: from Brexit to the Trump card."

McCreary's commanding vocals and musicianship have been featured prominently in the ground-breaking series "Battlestar Galactica," as well as AMC's worldwide sensation "The Walking Dead." His original songs have been showcased in such popular series as CW's hit "90210," "Terminator: The Sarah Connor Chronicles," "Eureka," NBC's "Trauma," "The Cape" and "Human Target." Brendan has worked with Visual Music for various clients including Google.

BRENDAN MCCREARY webpage on Visual Music website: http://visualmusicartists.com/wordpress/?page_id=708

About Visual Music

Visual Music is a boutique music house with an elite roster of world-class composers (including Brendan's sibling Bear McCreary), emerging artists and hit songwriters. Its relentless focus is to deliver extraordinary music via creative collaboration between its artists and clients. Recent Visual Music clients include Disney (with the viral hit "Unforgettable Stories" with 12 million+ online views), BMW, Red Bull, AT&T ("Daybreak," a 2013 Cannes Silver Lion winner), iRobot and Hard Rock Hotel. For more information please go to: <http://visualmusicartists.com>

The Worst Is yet to Come

Young Beautiful in a Hurry
Royalty

SPW Video Credits:

Written by Brendan McCreary

Performed by Young Beautiful In A Hurry